

It's Mine, You Can't Have It: Resource Sharing, Now and in the Future

Friday, May 23, 2008

Lansing Community College West Campus

This workshop will explore the state of interlibrary loan and the future of resource sharing in Michigan. The first half of the workshop will cover interlibrary loan issues as they are today, including: best practices; delivery costs; MeLCat; and more. The second half of the workshop will cover the future of Resource Sharing. This facilitated discussion will focus on the Rethinking Resource Sharing Initiative and Manifesto: "We believe that the user should be able to get what s/he wants on the terms s/he chooses without undue hurdles from the library community."

8:30- 9:00 a.m. Registration

9:00 -9:15 a.m. Welcome and Introductions

Speakers are:

Karen Liston, Public Services Librarian, Wayne State University
Debbi Schaubman, MeLCat Implementation Coordinator, Michigan Library Consortium
Anne Beaubien, Director, Cooperative Access Services, University of Michigan
Tom Genson, Director, Herrick District Library

Sessions and Breakouts Include:

The Evolution of Interlibrary Loan

Nontraditional Approaches to Interlibrary Loan

MeLCat: Facilitating Resource Sharing in the State

Using OCLC Group Access Capability (GAC) for Interlibrary Loan

Rethinking Resource Sharing Initiative and Manifesto

Rethinking Resource Sharing Initiative Discussion

There's No Such Thing as a Free Book

Where Do We Go From Here? Question and Answer Panel

Presented by: Access, Collections and Technical Services Roundtable

Registration: Members $85 Nonmembers $170

CEUs Pending

Register today at: http://www.mla.lib.mi.us/events/programs/form_workshop_registration

MLA Scholarships Available. Apply online at: <http://www.mla.lib.mi.us/events/edfund>